

Dear Chairman Powell,

I am asking you to act in the interest of the public on the issue of further deregulation of the media instead of corporations. This decision reflects a larger issue in America today, that of distrust. The public senses that deliberate attempts are being made to exclude their involvement in all types of decisions that directly affect them and this is unhealthy for all Americans. We deserve better. Thank you.